

ADP Engaging Minds—November

Thursday November 1st

1pm Ben Hill Griffin 109

Dr. Bob Schwartz of the AIDS Treatment Center to speak on campus

Don't miss hearing this local hero in the fight against HIV and AIDS!

Brought to you by SG BEEP

Tuesday November 6th

11am-2pm Student Union Lawn

Project Do Something Fair

Visit several different organizations tables and learn about how you can help them make a difference. Music and food as well!

Brought to you by students in Mancini's FGCU Civic Engagement class

Wednesday Nov. 7th

7pm Black Box Theater- Arts Complex

Qallunaat!

Why White People are Funny

A docucomedy that pokes fun at the tendency to frame a world of Eskimo "others" through the documentary form by filmmaker Mark Sandiford and Inuit writer and satirist, Zebbedee Nungak

Amnesty International's Rights Nights

Tuesday November 13th

3:30-4:30 Student Union 213

ADP Times Talk

Just bring your brain! Learn about a current topic while eating free pizza

Picnic on the Path

Tuesday November 13th 5:00pm

Nature trails (there will be signs)

Come enjoy FGCU's nature trails! Activities to educate about the environment and food will be provided!

Wednesday November 14th

7pm Black Box Theater- Arts Complex

Suicide Bombers: Inside the Minds of Failed Martyrs

In a series of powerful and revealing interviews from inside Israeli prisons, this documentary examines the motives of Palestinian suicide bombers

Amnesty International's Rights Nights

Monday November 19th

7pm Black Box Theater- Arts Complex

Breaking Ranks

A moving documentary about the plight of four U.S. soldiers seeking sanctuary in Canada as part of their resistance to the war in Iraq and the international political tangle involved.

Amnesty International's Rights Nights

Monday November 26th

7pm Black Box Theater- Arts Complex

Dying to Leave: The Dark Business of Human Trafficking

This documentary explores the worldwide boom in illicit migration and human trafficking, recording the stories of those who pull up their roots and risk all and putting a human face on an issue too often reduced to statistics.

Amnesty International's Rights Nights

Tuesday November 27th

3:30-4:30 Student Union 213

ADP Times Talk

Just bring your brain! Learn about a current topic while eating free pizza

Wednesday December 5th

7pm AB5 112

FGCU Presidential Debate

Get caught up on the Presidential 2008 candidates the fun way so you can make an informed choice.