

Graduate Curriculum Team (GCT): The Annual Report for 2007-2008

Team Members

Khaled Aboulnasr, College of Business
Sherrie Amundsen, Ex Officio
Patricia Coccoma, College of Professional Studies
Cathy Duff, Ex Officio
Mary Kay Hartung, Library
Dennis Hunt, College of Health Professions
Dorothy Rea, College of Education
Tak Ueda, College of Arts and Sciences

GCT Goals for the Academic Year 2007-2008

- To review and evaluate new or revision proposals for Master's programs from all colleges submitted to us during this academic year.
- To review and evaluate the Curriculum Development Procedures
- To review and evaluate the Course Management System

Meeting Schedules

The GCT normally met once every two-week in the Whitaker Hall, Room 227. The meeting period was set on Wednesdays from 12:00 – 2:00 PM. During the period of April 21-30, the committee members communicated and reviewed two proposal revisions through e-mail.

Meeting Date	Team Activities
9/12/07	organizational
9/26/07	review of the Curriculum Development Procedures
	proposal review
10/10/07	proposal review
11/7/07	proposal review
11/16/07	proposal review
11/28/07	proposal review
12/5/07	proposal review
1/16/08	organizational
1/23/08	proposal review
2/6/08	proposal review
2/20/08	cancelled
3/12/08	proposal review
3/26/08	cancelled
4/9/08	proposal review
4/21-30/08	proposal review through e-mail

List of Graduate Degree Proposals Reviewed by the GCT

This year the GCT reviewed either new or revised, for graduate degree programs. The reviewed proposals and the committee's decisions are listed in the table on a separate file (see attached).

Summary of the GCT Activity

The GCT committee reviewed and evaluated a total of 16 proposals (either new or revised) for Master's programs from all colleges submitted to us during this academic year. The committee reviewed and will continue evaluating the Curriculum Development Procedures and the Course Management System.