

World Have Your Say

Mr. Rick Johnson, WGCU Public Media
May 1, 2011 – February 29, 2012

WGCU Public Media will partner with a local daily newspaper and a very popular weekly newspaper to present BBC's World Have Your Say. Partnering with other news organizations will facilitate additional coverage of the BBC's World Have Your Say while still allowing World Have Your Say the ability to determine subjects and themes for the broadcast as news events unfold.

WGCU will also reach out to local community groups to provide a venue for a community broadcast of the live show. This will provide an opportunity to have a live audience for a show within the community and a show at the studios of WGCU.

BBC and specifically World Have Your Say are dedicated to presenting news and information in an unbiased and fair manner.
