

FGCU in Greece

Hellenic American University in Athens, Greece

Summer or Semester Programs

Greece, the birthplace of democracy and cradle of Western civilization, offers extraordinary opportunities for a rich learning experience. Athens is a vibrant modern metropolis with a thriving arts scene, and a fulcrum of the ongoing debate on the meaning and future of Europe. A meeting place of East and West, Athens remains an affordable, safe and friendly Mediterranean city, where life is lived outdoors in the squares and sidewalk cafés of its many, diverse neighborhoods. Courses available in Language and Lit, Psychology, Engineering, Business, Music, Humanities and more. Students earn 6 credits per summer session (9 with Walk Across Greece option) and 12-15 credits per semester term

Dates: Spring: Late January to late May / Fall: Early September to mid-late December

Summer: Session 1: early June to Late June, Session 2: early July to Late July

*Summer Add on option – Walk Across Greece Course, a one week travelling course across Greece before each summer session. Add on cost is $1800, 3 credits

Program Fees: Summer Session - $3050 (+$1800 for signature “Walk Across Greece” Course)
Semester terms - $9050

Includes pre-departure support, application process, orientation, airport pick up, accommodation, tuition, cultural activities, staff support and expertise, 24 hour communication / emergency assistance and more.
