Harlaxton College
Grantham, England
Summer or Semester programs

Harlaxton College is located in Grantham, England, which is a small town about an hour north of London. The University of Evansville owns the 19th century manor, and FGCU has a contract that allows students to study abroad there every semester. Imagine studying in a 100-room Victorian manor house in the rolling English countryside one hour north of London. At Harlaxton College, you will do just that! And you'll share the manor with a community of committed faculty, supportive staff, and fellow students from UE and our partner colleges. Your family from home may join you for a few days' visit if they are able; you'll also have the opportunity to make new family ties with members of the local community in Grantham who share in the Harlaxton experience each semester.
