

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY

GRADUATE STUDIES

Program Description

Enter the contemporary practice of physical therapy with a doctoral degree (DPT). In this program, students become proficient in employing current sources of information and evidence-based practice, participating in a curriculum that focuses on effective problem solving and scientific inquiry. Faculty guide students to the broad base of knowledge they need to become self-directed learners, which will aid them in being resourceful scholars and clinicians. More information is available at <http://www.fgcu.edu/mariebcollege/rs/ptdpt/>

Admissions Requirements

- FGCU graduate application
- Application & all program specific materials submitted through PTCAS (www.ptcas.org)
- Official academic transcripts from every college or university attended
- Baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution
- Graduate Record Exam (GRE) official scores
  - Verbal & Quantitative = 35th percentile
