

MASTER OF SCIENCE FORENSIC STUDIES

GRADUATE STUDIES

Program Description

The Master of Science (MS) in Forensic Studies program allows students to specialize in a specific area of interest. Additional information can be found at: <http://www.fgcu.edu/CAS/ForensicsMS>

The Forensic Behavioral Analysis concentration addresses social problems relating to violence, sexual deviance, domestic relations, crime and terrorism through an integration of classical theory and contemporary research. A wide range of employment opportunities exist for graduates including those in local, state and federal crime and terrorism intelligence, law enforcement and corrections as well as child welfare and combatting domestic violence.

The Human Identity and Trauma Analysis concentration focuses on forensic anthropology, osteology and odontology. Graduates in this concentration seek employment with medical examiners, coroners and crime scene investigation units.
