

Fall 2019 STEMinar Schedule

Wednesdays
3:30-4:30 PM
RH 249

Refreshments
begin at
3:20 PM

Whitaker Center
 for STEM Education

SCIENCE • TECHNOLOGY • ENGINEERING • MATHEMATICS

Date	Speaker	Affiliation	Title
Friday, September 6 Special Location & Time- SH 114, 3:00-4:00 PM	Serge Thomas, Ph.D.	Associate Professor, Aquatic Ecologist, FGCU	The Use and Misuse of Stormwater Ponds in Southwest Florida
September 18	Bette Loiselle, Ph.D.	Professor of Wildlife Ecology & Conservation, University of Florida	Tropical birds as a model system for sexual selection: What do the females like?
October 2	Daniel Lambrecht, Ph.D.	Assistant Professor, Chemistry, FGCU	Molecular Movies for Green Chemistry
October 16	Jessica Marcolini, M.S.; Mary Walch, Ph.D.	Instructor II, Integrated Studies, FGCU; Assistant Professor, Communication & Philosophy, FGCU	Communicating Water Issues: Messaging by students for students
October 23	Christen Herrick, M.S.	Learning Operations Manager, Amazon, FGCU '07, '10	University Opportunities with Amazon
October 30	Ross LaRue, Ph.D.	Assistant Professor of Pharmaceutics and Pharmacology The Ohio State University	Investigation into HIV-1 Integrase Function in the Pursuit of Novel Therapies
November 20	Martha Rosenthal, Ph.D.	Biological Sciences, FGCU	The Endocannabinoid System is unique, ubiquitous, and complex... and may just revolutionize the practice of Western medicine