

Academic Warning System Policy Sub-Committee

Academic Standing Policy Revision Suggestions [Revised March 23, 2012]

Good Academic Standing: A student is in Good Academic Standing if his or her cumulative GPA is greater than or equal to 2.00.

Academic Notice: This will be for informational purposes only and will not be noted on the transcript. A student whose cumulative GPA is between 2.00 and 2.25 will receive an email from the Center for Academic Achievement to notify him or her of the minimum GPA required for Good Academic Standing. It will include information about campus resources with the intent to prevent the student from falling below Good Academic Standing. It will not be sent to students who have applied to graduate for the current semester. Additionally, a hold will be placed on SOAHOLD indicating that the student is on Academic Notice. The text of the hold will include a website address directing the student to information and resources. It will not prevent registration.

Academic Warning¹: A student will be placed on Academic Warning if his or her cumulative GPA falls below 2.00 for the first time.

Academic Probation¹: A student will be placed on Academic Probation if his or her cumulative GPA falls below 2.00 for the second time.

Academic Suspension: A student will be placed on Academic Suspension if he or she is currently on Academic Probation and earns a semester GPA below 2.00. The student may not enroll in courses at FGCU for the subsequent fall or spring semester, whichever comes first. (If a student is placed on Academic Suspension at the close of fall semester, he or she may not enroll in courses for the spring semester. If a student is placed on Academic Suspension at the close of the spring semester, he or she may not enroll in courses for the summer and fall semesters. If a student is placed on Academic Suspension at the close of summer semester, he or she may not enroll in courses for the fall semester.)

Probation After Academic Suspension¹: A student will be placed on Probation After Academic Suspension when he or she returns following non-enrollment for Academic Suspension. Semester GPA of 2.00 or higher must be earned to avoid Academic Dismissal.

Academic Dismissal: A student will be placed on Academic Dismissal if he or she does not earn a 2.00 or higher semester GPA while on Probation After Academic Suspension. He or she may not enroll in courses for one calendar year. Subsequent Academic Reinstatement is not automatic. If the student plans to seek Academic Reinstatement, the petition process may be initiated during the beginning of the third semester of his or her academic dismissal.

Academic Reinstatement: A student may petition the Academic Standards Committee for re-admission after the second semester of his or her Academic Dismissal. If reinstated, a semester GPA of 2.00 or higher must be maintained.

1. Statuses of "academic warning," "academic probation," or "probation after academic suspension" do not specifically prohibit a student from participating in extracurricular activities unless otherwise specified by university policy, rules, or by-laws governing the activity or organization."

Melanie Stanis 3/23/12 11:56 AM

Comment [1]: This sentence was added per feedback from Athletics.