

delivered to the Presiding Officer of the registered student organization and the organization's advisor. The Presiding Officer will have the opportunity to inspect all information that initiated the interim suspension prior to the appeal hearing. A copy of the notice will also be provided to the Office of Student Involvement. The registered student organization has three (3) class days from the notice of interim suspension to make a written request to appeal the imposition of the interim suspension. The appeal of the interim suspension will be heard by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee within three (3) class days of receipt of the appeal. The hearing may be delayed due to a semester break or closing of the University. The registered student organization's appeal of the interim suspension must be based on one of the following:

- 1) an egregious error pertaining to the registered student organization's involvement; or
- 2) a contention that the violation, even if proven, does not pose a threat to the health, safety or general welfare of the University community and thus does not warrant an interim suspension.
- b) If it is determined by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee that an interim suspension is not appropriate, the registered student organization's status will be reinstated and the conduct process will commence in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.
- c) The hearing to address the charge which is the basis for the interim suspension will be addressed in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

G. PROVISIONS FOR THE CHARGED STUDENT OR ORGANIZATION

The following provisions shall be explained to each Charged Student or Organization during the Conduct Review Conference or prior to the commencement of any conduct hearing:

1. The Charged Student or Organization will receive a fair and impartial hearing in accordance with the requirements of the Code. The date of the Conduct Review Conference or any hearing will be scheduled no earlier than five (5) days after the date of the notice.
2. The Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of the alleged violations against him or her or the Organization and the alleged misconduct upon which the charge(s) is based with reasonable access to the case file prior to and during the hearing.
3. The Charged Student or Organization may inspect any available information presented in support of the charges and to take notes. The Conduct Review Conference and any hearing will be scheduled to allow no less than three (3) days for the Charged Student or Organization to review the information.

4. The Charged Student or Organization may decline to make statements in response to the allegations and declining to make a statement shall not be construed as an admission of responsibility.
5. The Charged Student or Organization may be assisted by an advisor of his or her choice, at his or her own expense. The advisor may be present, but may not speak for, present the case for the student, or otherwise participate directly in the proceeding.
6. The Charged Student or Organization may hear and question adverse witnesses who provide a statement at the hearing, except in cases of sexual misconduct or abuse.
7. The Charged Student or Organization may present relevant information and witnesses.
8. The Charged Student or Organization shall not be required to present self-incriminating information.
9. The Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of the decision of the hearing body within ten (10) class days from the date of the hearing, unless extenuating circumstances are communicated to the Charged Student or Organization in writing that resulted in a delay of the decision.
10. The Charged Student or Organization may appeal the determination of responsibility in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

H. PROVISIONS FOR STUDENTS IMPACTED BY ACTS OF VIOLENCE

To ensure fairness to students impacted by acts of violence throughout the disciplinary process, the University has established the following position:

1. An Impacted Student may have one person of his or her choice accompany them throughout the Student Conduct Review process. This person will act as a support person or advisor but will not represent the Impacted Student. Moreover, the person will not be allowed to address the Hearing Officer or Hearing Body on behalf of the Impacted Student.
2. An Impacted Student will receive notice of the hearing no less than five (5) class days prior to the date of the hearing.
3. An Impacted Student may submit a list of questions related to the alleged incident, prior to the hearing. However, the Hearing Officer or Hearing Body shall not be required to ask these questions of the Charged Student or Organization.
4. An Impacted Student may not have his or her past conduct, including sexual history, considered when the Hearing Officer or Body is making a determination of the Charged Student or Organization as to “responsible” or “not responsible.”

5. An Impacted Student may make a “student impact statement” and offer to the Hearing Officer or Hearing Body a suggestion of what the Impacted Student believes to be an appropriate sanction for the Charged Student or Organization. This information may be used only in the sanctioning phase of deliberations if the Charged Student or Organization is found “responsible” for violating the Student Code of Conduct.
6. The Charged Student or Organization will not be permitted to directly question the Impacted Student where the alleged violations are sexual misconduct or abuse. In such cases, the Charged Student or Organization and the Impacted Student shall submit questions to the Hearing Body. However, the Hearing Body shall not be required to ask those questions submitted by the Charged or Impacted Student to the Student who is being questioned.
7. Where the student conduct review process addresses an allegation of sexual misconduct or abuse, the Clery Act provides that both the Impacted Student and the Charged Student or Organization must be informed of the final outcome of the student conduct review process without a commitment to protect the confidentiality of the information. The “final outcome” means only the final determination with respect to the alleged sexual misconduct or abuse and any sanction(s) that is imposed against the Charged Student or Organization. If the Impacted Student is deceased, the next of kin shall be considered as the alleged Impacted Student for purposes of this paragraph.
8. When the Charged Student or Organization is alleged to have committed sexual misconduct or abuse, the Impacted Student may appeal the outcome of a conduct hearing in writing within three (3) class days from the date of the decision letter by filing a written appeal. If there is an appeal filed by either the Impacted Student or Charged Student or Organization, the other student will be notified of the filing of the appeal and the final outcome.

I. STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

The President has delegated to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee authority to implement the Student Code of Conduct. All procedures will be consistent with the rights afforded to students in University disciplinary decisions.

1. Charges

- a) No charges will be considered, and no charges can be filed under the Student Code of Conduct later than six (6) months after the date the alleged violation occurred except allegations alleging sexual misconduct or abuse may be considered no later than twelve (12) months after the date of the alleged sexual misconduct or abuse. In certain cases, the Vice-President for Student Affairs may waive the time period for filing charges after making a finding in writing that waiving the time period for filing charges is in the best interest of the University.

- b) A review of possible charges may be initiated in the following ways:
 - 1) Any individual may file a signed written statement to the Dean of Students Office concerning an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct. The statement should include all information and details specific to the incident including dates, times, location and the names of any witnesses. The information will be reviewed by the Dean of Students or designee to determine whether Student Code of Conduct charges will be filed or if alternative action is appropriate;
 - 2) Any information that comes to the attention of the University in any manner, including any electronic social media, that an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct is reported to have occurred;
 - 3) The University may also amend its charge(s) or file with new charges based on information obtained through an outside proceeding, additional investigation, or other credible sources where that information is relevant to activity adversely affecting the University community;
 - 4) An admission of guilt in any proceedings is conclusive for adjudicating a Student Code of Conduct violation; or
 - 5) A verdict of guilty, adjudication withheld, a plea of guilty or similar disposition in a court of law by a Charged Student or Organization shall be deemed conclusive that the student is "responsible" for the purpose of University proceedings.
- c) All hearings shall be conducted on the basis that the Charged Student or Organization is not in violation. The burden of proof shall not be upon the Charged Student or Organization who is subject to the hearing.
- d) Upon review of the information to determine if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the allegations of the complaint are true, the Dean of Students or designee may:
 - 1) Invoke an Interim Suspension; or
 - 2) Direct the University to commence conduct proceedings.
- e) Except in cases where the Dean of Students or designee determines that the safety, health, or general welfare of any part of the University community is at risk necessitating an interim suspension, the student's enrollment status shall remain unchanged pending the University's final decision in the matter. Notwithstanding, a hold will be placed on the student's records pending the outcome of the case. No student may modify his or her registration status in any way while a disciplinary hold is in place.
- f) A student's conduct case record will be retained in the Office of the Dean of Students in accordance with the records retention schedule promulgated by the Florida Department of State.
- g) The release of student disciplinary records will be governed by applicable federal and state laws regarding the privacy of education records.

2. Notice

The Charged Student or Organization will be given written notice of the alleged violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct (i.e. Charge Letter). The official University email address and/or the address provided by the student to the Registrar's Office will be used for all correspondence with the Charge Student. The official University email addresses for the Organization's presiding officer and advisor will be used for all correspondence with the Charged Organization. The Hearing Officer may place a disciplinary hold on student records prohibiting the registration of any student who fails to respond to an official request from the Dean of Students or designee. All pending disciplinary matters must be resolved prior to the awarding of any degree or certificate.

The written notice will include the following:

- a) The Charged Student or Organization's name, Charged Student's University identification number, and address;
- b) A description of the alleged violation(s) including date(s), time(s), and place(s) of the incident(s) and the resulting charges;
- c) Source(s) of information;
- d) Link to the provisions in the Student Code of Conduct which apply to the Charged Student or Organization;
- e) Notice of the opportunity to review materials received by the University concerning the alleged violations; and
- f) Direct student, within five (5) days of the date of the Notice, to contact the Dean of Students or designee to schedule a Conduct Review Conference. If the student does not contact the Dean of Students or designee within five (5) days of the date of notice, the Dean of Students, or designee will set a conference to provide the student with no less than five (5) days after the expiration of the time to contact the Dean of Students.

3. Student Advisor

- a) The Charged Student or Organization may have, at his or her own expense and initiative, one advisor present at the hearing. It is the student's responsibility to make appropriate arrangements for the advisor to attend the hearing time scheduled by the administrative office hearing the case. The advisor may be present, but shall not speak for, or present the case, for the student or otherwise participate directly in the proceeding. The Charged Student must sign a Release of Education Records to a Third Party to allow an advisor to receive a Student's information. A hearing will not be delayed or rescheduled based on the availability of an advisor or witnesses.
- b) Communication regarding the case will be made directly with the student. It is the responsibility of the Charged Student or Organization to relay information to his or her advisor.

4. Conduct Review Conference

- a) At this meeting, the Charged Student or Organization will have an opportunity to discuss the charge(s) and inspect all information with the designated staff of the Dean of Students Office or Housing and Residence Life. The Charged Student or Organization may be accompanied by an advisor when inspecting the information at the Conduct Review Conference. Although the advisor may be present at the Conference, the advisor may not speak on behalf of the Charged Student or Organization or otherwise participate.
- b) If the Charged Student or Organization fails to schedule a conference within five (5) class days of receipt of the notice or attend a scheduled conference, a formal hearing will be scheduled according to his or her class schedule and will provide the student with no less than five (5) days to review the information presented in support of the charges.
- c) A Charged Student who leaves the University or withdraws from a class before a disciplinary matter is resolved will have a hold placed on his or her record that will prohibit the student from future enrollment until such time as the matter is resolved.
- d) At the conclusion of the Conduct Review Conference, the Dean of Students or designee informs the Charged Student or Organization of the options for resolution of the disciplinary charge(s). These options are: case dismissal, summary resolution or a formal hearing.
 - (1) If the charges are dismissed, no further action will be taken by the University and the Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of the dismissal.
 - (2) If the Charged Student or Organization chooses to accept "responsibility" for at least one of the charges, the Dean of Students or designee will determine sanctions in accordance with this Code through a Summary Resolution, informal process. The Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of the University's acknowledgement of the Charged Student or Organization's acceptance of responsibility and the sanctions to be applied. The Charged Student or Organization must sign a form acknowledging the waiving of the 24 hour consideration period and rights to a formal hearing.
 - (3) If the Charged Student or Organization chooses to request a formal hearing, the Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of the University's acknowledgement of the Charged Student or Organization's decision to proceed to a formal hearing. The notification will also provide the Charged Student or Organization with information concerning the formal hearing process.
- e) The Charged Student or Organization will have 24 hours from the Conduct Review Conference to inform the Dean of Students or designee, by either email notification or by written notice, whether the he or she chooses a hearing before a Hearing Officer or the Student Conduct Committee or Residential Conduct Council, as appropriate. The Charged Student or Organization may waive their right to the 24 hour time period in writing and select a hearing type following the completion of the Conduct Review Conference. In circumstances where a case is more complex, the University may determine the type of hearing to be utilized for resolution of the case.

- f) As additional information becomes available regarding the case following the Conduct Review Conference, the Charged Student or Organization is responsible for asking the hearing body if there is any additional information available prior to the formal hearing.

5. Formal Hearings

There are two types of formal hearings: administrative hearings before a Hearing Officer and hearings before a Hearing Body.

- a) Hearings are scheduled no earlier than five (5) and no later than fourteen (14) class days following the Conduct Review Conference. If extenuating circumstances exist, as determined by the Hearing Officer, the hearing may be delayed. The Charged Student or Organization will be notified in writing of a delay ordered by the hearing officer. The formal hearing may also be delayed due to a semester break or closing of the University. A Charged Student or Organization may waive, in writing, the scheduled time period and have the case heard immediately by the Hearing Officer following the Conduct Review Conference.
- b) Adjudication proceedings under the Student Code of Conduct are administrative in nature. Therefore the Florida Evidence Code, the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure shall not apply in student conduct hearings.
- c) All formal hearings will be digitally recorded by the hearing body where the Charged Student or Organization has the potential for receiving a sanction of suspension or expulsion from the University and will serve as the official verbatim record of the proceeding. Videotaping of any hearing is prohibited.
- d) The hearing body determines responsibility of a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. This decision is determined by a preponderance of the information presented. The Hearing Body recommends sanctions, upon a determination of responsibility, to the Dean of Students or designee. In administrative hearings, the Hearing Officer determines responsibility and the sanction.
- e) Prior records of disciplinary action, Impacted Student statements and past criminal convictions are considered by the hearing body only in the sanctioning phase of deliberations if the student is found "responsible".
- f) If the Charged Student or Organization fails to attend his or her scheduled hearing, the case will be heard in the student's absence and the student will be informed of the decision in writing.

- g) In cases involving multiple students charged, information provided at one hearing may be used as evidence in the related cases(s). When two or more individual cases arise from the same incident, those cases may be heard jointly at the discretion of the Dean of Students or designee.
- h) Previously unknown or undisclosed information obtained in a hearing may result in subsequent charges and potentially result in another hearing.
- i) Prior to the subsequent hearing, the student will be permitted to inspect any additional information received by the Hearing Officer or Hearing Body.
- j) Participants in a hearing may include the Charged Student or Organization, the hearing body, witnesses (upon call of the hearing body), and the facilitator.

6. Administrative Hearings

- a) Administrative hearings shall be conducted by a Hearing Officer designated by the Dean of Students.
- b) At the request of the Charged Student or Organization, he or she will be notified of the Hearing Officer for the case and shall have the opportunity to challenge the impartiality of the individual. The student shall state in writing the basis for such challenge at least two (2) days prior to the hearing date. The Dean of Students or designee shall determine whether the Hearing Officer is impartial. A Hearing Officer determined not to be impartial will be excused; however, indiscriminate challenges shall not be permitted.
- c) The Dean of Students or designee may refer cases directly to the Hearing Body.
- d) At an Administrative Hearing, a Hearing Officer shall determine the finding of responsibility of the violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct. If found "responsible," the Charged Student or Organization will be given an appropriate sanction by the Hearing Officer.

7. Hearings by a Hearing Body

- a) The Student Conduct Committee shall include University faculty, staff and students. Each Student Conduct Committee shall have no less than fifty percent (50%) of its membership include students and will be comprised of at least three total members. Membership on the Residential Conduct Council shall only include residential students and does not include faculty and staff.
- b) The following order of presentation is recommended for use in hearings conducted by a Hearing Body. The order of business may be adjusted by the facilitator.
 - 1) Introduction of the Hearing Body and Charged Student or Organization.
 - 2) Presentation of charges by the Chair of the Hearing Body.
 - 3) The Charged Student or Organization is provided the opportunity to plea "responsible" or "not responsible" to the alleged violation(s).
 - 4) Opening statement of the Charged Student or Organization.
 - 5) Questions directed to the Charged Student or Organization by the Hearing Body.

- 6) Presentation of witnesses by the University, followed by questioning of those witnesses by both parties except in cases involving students impacted by an act of violence. Each witness is dismissed after questioning.
 - 7) Presentation of witnesses by the Charged Student or Organization, followed by questioning of those witnesses by both parties except in cases involving students impacted by an act of violence. Each witness is dismissed after questioning.
 - 8) The facilitator may limit the length of testimony of any witness or participant in the hearing if the information is redundant or irrelevant to the case.
 - 9) Closing statement of the Charged Student or Organization.
 - 10) All persons are excused from the hearing room for deliberations except the Hearing Body and facilitator. The facilitator does not participate in the deliberations but may advise the Hearing Body as appropriate.
 - 11) The Hearing Body considers only information introduced in the hearing. The decision of responsibility is based on the preponderance of information and is decided by a simple majority vote. In cases of a tie, the decision will be made in favor of the Charged Student or Organization. Previous violations are to be considered only in the sanctioning phase of deliberations.
 - 12) The decision of the Hearing Body as to “responsibility” and recommended sanctions is given to the facilitator and then to the Dean of Students or designee.
- c) The Dean of Students or designee makes the final decision and communicates the decision in writing to the student within ten (10) class days following the hearing, unless written notification is given that additional time is necessary for consideration of the outcome of the hearing. Any difference between the recommendations of the Hearing Body and the decision of the Dean of Students or designee and the reasons for those differences will be included on the written decision.
 - d) The student is informed of the process to appeal the decision of the Hearing Body.
 - e) Postponement of the hearing will only be allowed at the discretion of the Dean of Students or designee.
 - f) Any participant including the Impacted Student, Charged Student or Organization, or an Advisor, determined by the hearing body to be unruly or disruptive to the hearing process will be removed from the hearing. A Charged Student or Organization may be subject to additional charges for violation of the Student Code of Conduct related to the removal from the hearing for unruly or disruptive behavior.

8. Witnesses

- a) Witnesses may include, but will not be limited to persons who can give a first hand account of the incident.

- b) The University cannot compel any person to attend a student disciplinary hearing on behalf of the Organization. The Charged Student or Organization is responsible for arranging for his or her own witnesses and presenting information during the proceeding. The Charged Student or Organization may hear and question adverse witnesses who provide a statement at the hearing, except in cases of sexual misconduct or abuse. The hearing body shall have the authority to limit the number of witnesses in order to avoid unreasonable delays where the testimony of these witnesses is repetitious or irrelevant.
- c) It is at the discretion of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Body to call witnesses to support the charges against the Charged Student or Organization in an Administrative or Hearing Body hearing proceeding.
- d) Character witnesses may provide testimony in the form of a written statement.
- e) Witnesses may not serve as the advisor to an Impacted Student or Charged Student or Organization.
- f) The Charged Student or Organization is “responsible” for arranging the attendance of witnesses to present a statement at the formal hearing.
- g) Witnesses who are impacted by acts of violence will provide a statement in accordance with the Impacted Student rights provisions of Section H of the Code.
- h) A student’s advisor may not provide a statement as a witness.

9. Disciplinary Sanctions

- a) As provided for in Section 7.C of the Code, the Dean of Students, or designee may impose the following sanctions or combination of sanctions (with or without appropriate modifications) upon any student found to be “responsible” for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct:
 - 1) Reprimand – An official written disciplinary warning that the student’s behavior is in violation of the Student Code of Conduct, and that if the student is subsequently found “responsible” for another such violation while on disciplinary warning, subsequent action may be imposed.

 - 4) Counseling Assessment and Compliance – Referral for assessment (at the student’s expense) to a licensed mental health professional or counseling center for general mental health or other counseling issues. Students found “responsible” for alcohol, drug or behavioral violations may be referred to the FGCU Counseling and Psychological Services Office or to an outside agency or counselor based on the seriousness of the violation. Students must - comply with all recommendations established as a result of any assessment resulting from the imposition of this sanction.

- 5) Restitution – Payment to compensate for actual damages or loss of services to the University or the Impacted Student.
 - 6) Disciplinary Probation – A period of time during which the student is considered not in good standing. Restrictive conditions may be imposed as an element of probation and vary according to the severity of the offense. Restrictive conditions include, but may not be limited to the following: denial of the privilege to occupy a position of leadership or responsibility in any University Registered Student Organization (RSO), publication, or activity, or ability to represent the University in an official capacity or position. If the student is found “responsible” for another violation of the Student Code of Conduct during the period of Disciplinary Probation, a sanction of suspension or expulsion from the University may be imposed.
 - 7) Restrictions – Restrictions may be imposed on a student which include but are not limited to:

 - 10) Removal from the classroom and/or the course - including but not limited to: dismissal from the course or reassignment to another section.
 - 11) Suspension- A period of time when a student may not attend classes, or participate in University related activities, whether the class or activity occurs on or off campus. The Registrar’s Office is instructed to place an overlay on the student’s transcript during the period of suspension indicating the period of suspension. Further, while on disciplinary suspension, a hold will be placed on a student’s record to prevent registration. All assigned educational sanctions must be completed prior to the restoration of student privileges; otherwise the disciplinary suspension will remain in effect. A suspended student is not permitted on University property during the length of their suspension. If a suspended student is found on University property, the University Police will be notified.
 - 12) Disciplinary Expulsion- Removes the student from his or her academic program and permanently separates a student from Florida Gulf Coast University without opportunity to graduate or re-enroll. The Registrar’s Office is instructed to permanently place an overlay on the student’s transcript indicating the expulsion. Further, a hold will be permanently placed on a

The following notation will be added to the transcript while suspension or expulsion is in effect. "The student is not in good standing with the University. For more information, contact the Dean of Students Office."
- d) Decisions regarding falsification of admission or re-admission information may be forwarded to the appropriate office for review of the application and appropriate action regarding admission.
- e) A student who fails to complete sanctions will have a disciplinary hold placed on his or her record. This hold will affect the student's ability to register for classes and the student may receive additional charges under the Student Code of Conduct. Disciplinary holds will not be removed until the sanctions are completed.
- f) A student may be asked to provide the Hearing Officer with a sanction status report.

J. APPEALS WITHIN THE STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW PROCESS

1. Appeal Requests

The student may appeal the outcome of a conduct hearing in writing within three (3) class days from the date of the decision letter by filing a written appeal. The appeal of the outcome of a conduct hearing held by the Hearing Officer shall be considered by the Dean of Students or designee. The appeal of the outcome of a conduct hearing held by the Hearing Body shall be considered by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. An appeal must be based on one or more of the following grounds:

- a) Due process errors involving the University's failure to provide the student with notice or an opportunity to be heard;
- b) The sanction(s) is (are) extraordinarily severe in relation to the offense committed; or
- c) New information can be provided that was not available at the time of the original proceeding.

2. Appeal Hearings

- a) The necessity for an appeal hearing will be at the discretion of the University Official to which the student has appealed. This decision is based on the student's written information provided in the appeal. If an appeal is granted, the burden of proof rests with the student to show, by a preponderance of the information presented, that the grounds for an appeal have been met.
- b) If an appeal is permitted, it will be scheduled within ten (10) class days of receiving the written request for appeal unless good cause exists for deferring the scheduling more than ten (10) class days after receiving the noticed appeal. The student may waive the ten (10) day period and request the appeal be heard at a mutually agreeable time.
- c) Students impacted by acts of violence, may participate in the appeals process pursuant to Section H of the Code.
- d) The student is permitted to continue to attend classes while under appeal and, unless otherwise notified in writing by the Dean of Students or designee, is permitted to continue to live in Housing.

3. Appeal Decisions

- a) Based on information presented on appeal, the original determination may be upheld, modified, reversed, or a new hearing may be ordered. The appeal decision shall be communicated to the Charged Student in writing. The decision shall state the reasons for the original determination being upheld, modified, reversed or that a new hearing will be ordered.
- b) All appeal decisions are communicated in writing to the student within ten (10) class days of the appeal hearing, unless notification is given that additional time is necessary for consideration of the record on appeal.
- c) Except in the case of an Interim Suspension, the student's academic status will remain unchanged during the appeal or review process; however, University Housing status and other activities may be affected.
- d) The appeal decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee is final and the student shall be informed that at the time the appeal decision is communicated he or she may appeal the final decision to an outside judicial forum.

K. STANDARDS FOR BEHAVIOR IN THE CLASSROOM

Faculty members have the primary responsibility of managing the classroom environment. Faculty members may remove a student from the classroom for disruption on the day that it occurs. In addition, faculty members may seek permanent removal of a disruptive student from the class by way of a written incident report made to the Dean of Students Office. The report is processed in accordance with the investigation and student conduct review process as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.

L. RESOLUTION OF ALLEGATION OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

A student charged with academic dishonesty will have the case resolved as follows:

1. The faculty member of record in the class communicates with the student and informs him or her of the allegations against the student. If the student accepts responsibility for the academic dishonesty, the student will receive an academic sanction determined by the faculty member of record, which may include a failing grade in the class. In concert with this meeting, the faculty member completes the Faculty Referral/Summary Adjudication form and secures the signature or other form of acceptance by the student. Faculty Referral/Summary Adjudication forms are available online at:

<http://studentservices.fgcu.edu/studentconduct/forms.html>.

- The completed Faculty Referral/Summary Adjudication form is then submitted to the Dean of Students Office to be included in the student's conduct file.
2. If, after the faculty member of record communicates with, and informs, the student of the allegation against him or her, the student denies responsibility for the actions, or the allegations are so egregious (such as having more than one incident of academic dishonesty on record with the University or in the course) the matter is immediately referred to the Dean of Students Office to coordinate the hearing process.
 3. The faculty member of record in the class informs the student(s) that he or she has been submitted by direct faculty referral for a suspected academic integrity violation to the Dean of Students Office for investigation of the allegation and to coordinate the hearing process.
 4. Procedure for reporting academic dishonesty:
 - a) Faculty must contact the Dean of Students Office with the student's name and University Identification Number (UIN) to determine if the student has a prior academic dishonesty history. Only emails sent from the faculty's University email account will be accepted.
 - 1) Once the Dean of Students Office has been contacted, upon request of the faculty member making the referral, the Dean of Students Office will notify the Registrar's Office that the student may not withdraw from the class during the investigation/hearing process. If a student attempts to drop a class prior to the end of the investigation/hearing process, the student will be restored to

- the class roster and the appropriate grade or penalty will be imposed, if applicable. The faculty member is “responsible” for notifying the student that they have been reenrolled in the class.
- 2) The faculty member has the authority to adjudicate first offense violations of academic dishonesty and impose a grade penalty. Second offenses must be referred to the Dean of Students Office for hearing with the Academic Integrity Committee.
 - b) In circumstances where a case is more complex, the University may determine the type of hearing to be utilized for resolution of the case.
 - c) The Charged Student may inspect any available information presented in support of the charges and take notes prior to the hearing with the faculty member or the Academic Integrity Committee.
 5. The Academic Integrity Committee will hear the case and make a determination of whether there is a preponderance of information to find the student “responsible” for academic dishonesty. If the student is determined to be “responsible” for academic dishonesty, the committee will recommend a disciplinary sanction which may include expulsion.
 6. The Dean of Students will review the decision of the Academic Integrity Committee, make the final determination, and provide written notice of the determination to the student and faculty of record. The final determination will include the basis for the determination and if the determination of the Dean of Students is different from the recommendation of the Committee, then the reasons of those differences will be included in the written decision.
 7. After the determination by the Academic Integrity Committee, the faculty of record will assign the student a final grade (which may include a failing course grade). The faculty member may then, if necessary, process the appropriate grade change with the Registrar’s Office.
 8. Academic Integrity Committee
 - a) The Academic Integrity Committee is coordinated by the Dean of Students Office to resolve cases of alleged academic dishonesty referred by the faculty. It is comprised of faculty and students in the following structure:
