PR5.008 Personnel Exchange Program

(1) General. Full-time employees filling positions in the General Faculty and A&P classification plans are eligible to participate in the personnel exchange program established by this rule. The personnel exchange program allows University employees to be exchanged with those of the Federal Government, of another state, of agencies of government, both state and local, or public institutions of higher education outside the State University System.

(2) Guidelines for Selection.

(a) An eligible employee who wishes to be considered for a personnel exchange shall initiate a written request through his or her vice president to the President. The request shall clearly state the expected benefits to the employee and the University.

(b) The President shall consider the following criteria in the selection of applicants:

1. Whether the employee is in an essential position.
2. Whether the exchange will have a direct benefit to the department, division, or University.
3. Whether the exchange will have a tangible benefit to the University.

(c) Terms of Exchange Program are governed by Sections 112.24 through 112.31, Florida Statutes.

Specific Authority 240.227(11), FS Law implemented 112.27,
240.227(11), FS. History -- New 4-17-97.
