

Hooding Demonstration:

- 1) Approach the stage with your hood draped over your left arm.
- 2) The Provost and the Committee Chair will place the hood over your head, so that it lays against the front of his/her neck and drapes over the back shoulders. The velvet side, signifying the degree type, should be most visible on the outside, with the satin side, signifying the school colors, should be less visible on the inside of the hood.
- 3) The President will congratulate you and then the College Dean.
- 4) Your Picture will be taken upon exiting the stage.
- 5) Proceed to back of the arena to be congratulated by the faculty.
- 6) Return to the area you were seated.
