13 Item 1: AGB Search Listening Session for FGCU Employees

14 Florida Gulf Coast University students, employees, and community stakeholders were invited to 15 take part in public listening sessions to gather feedback on the professional qualities desired of 16 FGCU’s next president. Each session was led by consultants from AGB Search and the events
17 were hybrid so attendees could participate in person or virtually through a published link on the 18 presidential search website. Members of the Presidential Search Advisory Committee (PSAC)
19 and members of the FGCU Board of Trustees (BOT) were also invited as publicly noticed.

20
21 AGB Search called the session to order at 1 p.m. Participants were asked to provide feedback
22 on the following:

- 23 • What are the challenges and opportunities for FGCU’s next president?
- 24 • What qualifications and attributes should FGCU’s next president possess?
- 25 • What does success look like in the next 3 to 5 years?

26
27 AGB Search concluded the session at 2 p.m.
